We Want You to Know About Us

Located at 225 Spring Street in Wethersfield, Connecticut, Jury Administration is a unit of the Centralized Court Services Division of Court Operations. Jury Administration reaches more than half a million people in Connecticut each year through the issuance of summonses, our 1-800 information line and numerous outreach initiatives. Our dedicated and talented staff is ready to answer questions about jury duty and provide a variety of services to those who have been called upon to serve.

We Serve the Public

- We answer questions about jury duty.
- We give jurors directions to the court.
- We disqualify people who are:
 - √ Disabled
 - √ 70+ years of age and choose not to serve
 - √ Under 18 years of age
 - √ Non-residents or aliens
- We schedule new court dates for jurors who need to postpone.
- We accommodate disabled jurors who choose to serve.
- We answer questions about juror payments.

We Serve the Court

When people are summoned, confirmed and scheduled to appear for jury duty, we ensure that the court has the jurors needed to resolve cases. While only a fraction of those summoned for jury duty will actually serve on a trial, the very presence of jurors guarantees that cases will be resolved in a fair, timely and cost effective manner.

We work with the court staff to make sure jurors have the information they need to appear when and where they are needed. We also adjust the number of jurors we summon in order to ensure that the courts have the right number of jurors they need.
